What The Bible Says Good Samaritan's Penny Pulpit by Pastor Ed Rice

Msg #1744 A New Heaven and New Earth What The Bible Says Good Samaritan's Penny Pulpit by Pastor Ed Rice When the redeemed step into the presence of our eternal God we will gain a proper and holy perspective of all things. In the mean time we are to study to shew ourselves approved unto God, and to rightly divide the Word of truth. That Word of truth unfolds the most intimate plans of God. Biblical prophecy is ennobling; it is written for our comfort, not our curiosity. The rapture, the Bema Seat Judgment of the bride, the marriage supper and our eternal union with Christ are a consolation. Even the described seven year tribulation, the battle of Armageddon and the salvation of Israel culminating in the thousand year reign of Christ from the throne of David are to bring us solace. There is coming a second resurrection wherein all unregenerate souls stand before our Holy God on his Great White Throne (Rev20:11) before they partake of their second death. And then, finally, there is a new heaven and a new earth. This present heaven and earth "shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat" (2Pet3:10). Peter gives pause to ponder these prophecies, "Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in holy conversation and godliness?" (vr.11). It is ennobling that God has shared his hopes and plans for the future; it is a great act of intimacy when friends do that. Only the believing eye can see these portrayals in Scripture. The old adage is reversed for Revelation, here, "Believing is seeing." Bible revelation is thus meant to change our attitude as our world plunges toward his prophesied end. As our country leans reprobate, what manner of persons ought we to be? Ministers of reconciliation (2Cor 5:17-21). Another adage, "Let's get cracking."
