Yet Another Blond Joke

A blonde was looking for a way to make some extra money, so she decided to go door to door and see if she could do some chores for cash. She knocked on the door of the first house and asked the man if he had any odd jobs she could do for him today? He thought for a minute and said “yes you could paint my porch for me, and I will pay you $50.00. That seemed fair to the blonde so she agreed to do it. The man showed her where she could find the paint and brushes and went back in the house, about a half hour later , the blonde was back at the door and said she was done. The man replied “wow that was fast, are you sure your done already?” To which the blonde says “yes, but by the way that is not a porch it is a Ferrari!”
