What The Bible Says Good Samaritan's Penny Pulpit by Pastor Ed Rice

Msg #1809 All In the Family What The Bible Says Good Samaritan's Penny Pulpit by Pastor Ed Rice That which was from the beginning, the Life of God that was manifested, the Light of God that shined in darkness, the Truth of God that talked with mankind, we have bold eyewitnesses who saw the Word of Life. "This then is the message which we have heard of him, and declare unto you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all" (1John 1:5). The beloved disciple of our Lord Jesus Christ is a bold eyewitness and the extraordinary author in our focus, and the little letter he addressed to "my little children" captures our study. In introduction he emphasizes the fellowship that we now have with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ. In raw simplicity fellowship has been called "two fellows in the same ship," but a study of this little epistle will add depth and reality to that simplicity; we are family in this relationship, and family in Light will behave in a prescribed manner. The Reformed Protestant theologian explains that when one gets saved (confirmed, they suppose) they become part of the catholic church. Protestants broke from the Romans so they now suppose that the catholic church is an invisible organization with 365 denominations and no organization. That's kind of awkward so they dare not say it out loud that much. In reality when one gets saved they become sons of God and are added to the family. John's precious first epistle is all about fellowship of family. "In him is no darkness at all" will deal with the question, "Are you truly in the family?" "If we confess our sins" will deal with any broken fellowship within the family. John's introduction promises a great understanding for "my little children;" if that is what you are, you'll love this epistle.
