Emmaus Road Baptist Church, Chesapeake Virginia

Need: Bi-Vocational, Self-Supported, or Missionary Pastor

Contact Bro. Sam Wash (chairman of pulpit committee) at (757) 288-7850 E-mail: samuelwash55atgmaildotcom or rescuingchurchesatgmaildotcom or Brother Jay Allen at (757) 672-0164 Southeastern-most Virginia, bordering North Carolina, in Virginia's 3rd largest city with a population of 222,200 souls We are a congregation of 30-35 saints. We are an independent, fundamental KJV church that still uses the hymnal, and our music is conservative. The church is Bible-believing, preaching God's Word, not man's opinion. KJV only. Friendly church, fundamental, independent, traditional music, missionary-minded using Faith Promise Missions supporting 17 missionaries. The diverse congregation seeks to reach all people. Excellent facilities, debt free. The church is in a lower-income area of South Norfolk in Chesapeake, VA. We have an active weekly visitation program and run one of our two church vans for all services. We operate a graded Sunday School, a children's church, and a Wednesday night children's Bible Club. We offer a salary for the pastor, but it might not be sufficient, and you might consider supplementing your income by other means. We have an active mission program supporting 17 missionaries and 4 missionary projects. Please include in your resume a statement of your salvation, a brief doctrinal statement, a website to see you and hear you preach, a current family picture, and at least four references. Please include dates of experience in the ministry and personal data, i.e., birthday anniversaries. Emmaus Road Baptist Church 3000 Berkley Ave Chesapeake, Virginia 23325 (757) 545-3400
