Msg# 1219 Come and See What The Bible Says Good Samaritan's Penny Pulpit by Pastor Ed Rice Preacher Mike and Heather Gross, Missionaries to Sierra Leone, reminded us of a plea used often in the Bible, "Come and see." When you are headed out to preach the Gospel in a country which is 78% Muslim you want to be well acquainted with the verse "O taste and see that the LORD is good: blessed is the man that trusteth in him." (Ps39:8) Jesus came to John the Baptist who said "Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world." After Jesus' Baptism (by immersion) John identified him as the Christ; "Upon whom thou shalt see the Spirit descending, and remaining on him, the same is he which baptizeth with the Holy Ghost." Surely this great truth is one that must be seen for oneself. John the Baptist said it "And I saw and bear record that this is the Son of God." Then when John the Baptist appointed two of his disciples to follow the Christ he again said, "Behold the Lamb of God," and when they approached the Christ he said to them "Come and see." To those who are searching, the longing, those hungering and thirsting after righteousness repeat the refrain; "Behold the Lamb of God, ... come and see!" When Nathanael said "Can there any good come out of Nazareth?" it was Philip who said, "Come and see!" When the Samaritan woman knew that Jesus was the Messiah she said to all, "Come and see!" Nowhere in the Bible is a soul won by lifestyle evangelism, it is done when a genuine believer and witness says with their mouth, "Behold the Lamb of God ... Come and see." Got a mouth? Be a witness. They need the invitation.
