What The Bible Says Good Samaritan's Penny Pulpit by Pastor Ed Rice

Msg #1926 Protestant Apostasy Roots What The Bible Says Good Samaritan's Penny Pulpit by Pastor Ed Rice The haughty Gentile “theologian” who believes God took promises from Israel and now applies them to a Holy Catholic Church, believes God elects souls for salvation and others for damnation, believes God only has one covenant and it is with the Catholic Church, and rejects Christ's Millennial Reign and pre-tribulation rapture, does not know God. They cannot know him until they discard such Presbyterian-Calvinist-Reformed dribble. A Bible believer reading Romans 9 sees Paul lay out his soul with a passionate love for Israel. Gentiles, shame on their haughtiness, are only grafted in to the Israelite, “to whom pertaineth the adoption.” Roman Catholic Church Father Augustine (354-430AD) supposed Israel was un-adopted! Verse 4 continues, to Israel pertaineth the glory, and that glory is the glory of God. To Israel pertaineth the covenants (plural); the Calvinist who supposes there is only one covenant is clearly apostate. To Israel pertaineth the giving of the law. Paul noted earlier, “... unto them were committed the oracles of God” (Rom3:2). Israelites wrote all sixty-six Books! To Israel pertaineth the service of God; Israel was elect for this service. Election is always for service, and never for salvation. To Israel pertaineth the promise. Roman Saint Origen (182-254AD), founder of the vile Roman Catholic Allegorical Method, used it to twist and malign God's promises to Israel, trying to fit them to a contorted, convoluted, catholic church. The Vatican still supposes that it, not Israel, will rule all nations, and that there is no Millennial Reign of Christ from the throne of David in the hill of Zion. All Protestants are entangled in their gross error and all Calvinists are in bed with Rome “giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils” (1Tim 4:1-2). The latter times are upon us; be careful for sound doctrine.
