Msg #1931The Genesis of Sin III

What The Bible Says Good Samaritan's Penny Pulpit by Pastor Ed Rice

Msg #1931The Genesis of Sin III What The Bible Says Good Samaritan's Penny Pulpit by Pastor Ed Rice It does not surprise the genuine Bible student that the Godly line of man, those that call upon the name of the LORD, are to be called the "sons of God." There is staged in this Genesis of sin some clear battle lines wherein that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world, strategically tries to destroy every seed-line of God. This pursuit to destroy the seed-line of God's promised Messiah is prophesied in the Serpent's ability to bruise his heel, and is a central theme threaded throughout the Old Testament. Satan is nipping at the heels of the Messiah all through this saga. Ultimately Satan fails in this endeavor and the Messiah, the Christ, is alive, victorious over sin and death, crushing Satan's head. The fifth chapter of Genesis also recites "and he died" seven times and therein emphasizes that the wages of sin is death. It further gives the entire history of man in a careful, traceable, year-by-year documentation. For the Bible believer there is no prehistoric event. Finally after 1,556 years of God's recorded history of humanity in sin, "It repented the LORD that he had made man on the earth" (Genesis 6:6). God's summary of man's fallen estate and his depravity in sin is, "And God saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually" (6:5). After the world flood, and its cataclismic affect on man's environment, God assigns man the task of keeping man's gross appetite for sin in check. God commands Noah, "Whoso sheddeth man's blood, by man shall his blood be shed: for in the image of God made he man" (9:6).
