Shannock Baptist Church Pastor Kevin Mansfield 1632 Shannock Rd. Shannock, Rhode Island 02875 (401) 364-7015 History: Founded in 1772, Shannock Baptist Church is one of the oldest Baptist churches in Rhode Island and the United States. Originally known as the Church of Christ in Richmondtown and later as the Second Baptist Church of Richmond, it adopted its current name in 1813. Throughout its history, the church has played a significant role in the community, serving as a center for worship, education, and social gatherings. Architecture: Shannock Baptist Church features a beautiful Greek Revival-style building constructed in 1827. The white clapboard exterior, topped with a steeple, exudes a classic New England charm. The interior boasts spacious pews, high ceilings adorned with intricate moldings, and a large pulpit. Significance: Shannock Baptist Church is listed on the National Register of Historic Places for its architectural and historical significance. It serves as a testament to the early Baptist movement in Rhode Island and the region's rich religious heritage. The church continues to be an active place of worship and a vital part of the Shannock community. Additional Information: Services are held on Sundays at 10:00 AM and Wednesdays at 7:00 PM.
