Poetry About Jesus And Salvation

<http://www.cavaliersonly.com>

Poetry about jesus and salvation, along with christian articles and music.

Poetry that I have written (Cindy Wyatt), along with poetry by Christian poets of the past. There are also messages and articles about salvation from preachers of the past and present, along with some conservative Christian music, including Children Gospel Singers. I began writing poetry in 2008, and subsequently the Lord led me to construct this website. This is an evangelistic type poetry site with internet tracts and the plan of salvation clearly presented in an effort to win people to the Lord.
