The Law and the Gospel

<https://utmost.org/the-law-and-the-gospel/>

Whoever shall keep the whole law, and yet stumble in one point, he is guilty of all. —James 2:10The moral law does not consider our weaknesses as human beings; in fact, it does not take into account our heredity or infirmities. It simply demands that we be absolutely moral. The moral law never changes, either for the highest of society or for the weakest in the world. It...
