Streaming online church services: the tech, the tips and the stories from around the world

https://www.musicademy.com/online-church-services-tech-tips-streaming/

Last weekend was the first weekend that many churches globally closed their physical doors and instead embraced the virtual world of online services. Over on the Musicademy Facebook Group several people had spent the previous few days discussing the technical options, the pros and cons of the various streaming platforms before taking their decisions on [...]Please visit Musicademy for the full article.
